

"Creating Classrooms of Character" Seminar

Do your students lack motivation? Is bullying a problem? Do students show disrespect for staff? Cheating? Drugs? Or just have a good culture you'd like to make better?

The "Creating Classrooms of Character" seminar is designed to help you be proactive in building a positive school culture by improving classroom management skills and establishing a community of learners. Through an engaging discussion, you'll learn the why's and how's of character education, how to create an environment where good character is valued, expected, and rewarded, and receive character-building resources for immediate implementation.

Topics and exercises:

- Creating a safe, caring, and inclusive learning environment
- What does a "School of Character" look like?
- Infusing the school with the character quality of the month
- Student role and voice
- How will we measure success?
- What does a "Classroom of Character" look like?
- How to build character with praise
- Establishing classroom expectations

What you will take away from this workshop:

- Resources and techniques to make learning character fun and memorable
- Classroom management skills
- Steps for immediate implementation
- How to decrease disciplinary referrals, improve school climate, and raise student achievement.

"This program serves the mission statement – a foundation for success in life."

- Paula Bruner, National Eating Disorder Association Volunteer Navigator

"Extraordinarily professional, stimulating, and thought provoking."

- George Harperink, Whiz Kids Tutor

